Dear Members,

Regular monsoon set in during the month of July. To beat the monsoon the third overseas meet at Thailand was played on three courses by the MDGC Golfers.

Hectic schedule followed. Inter club tournaments with Hyderabad Golf Association at Hyderabad and Civil Services Golf Association of Karnataka in Bangalore.

The members also played the second edition of a unique tournament with the members of Madras Cricket Club at Chennai, but it was not cricket. First day was Golf and second day it was Hockey.

We hosted the 21st Edition of the Coorg Meet of Addicts Golfing Society of Southern India.

All these meets were well conducted and appreciated. R&A rules Clinic-Level 1 was also conducted for the members.

Extra General Body Meeting of the club was conducted recently. The Agenda circulated to all members, was passed.

Next in the Tournament Calendar is T.R.Balachandran Coorg Doubles Golf Challenge 2023, The Coorg Triangular Golf Championship in November and in December we will be conducting the 19th edition of Sakhamuri Golf Championship.

Intermittent rains have been delaying the construction activities. However, the labour quarters should be ready for occupation by November 2023 before Diwali. As mentioned, in the previous issue of the club news the Roofing work of the Multi Utility Hall has commenced in right earnest.

With Regards
Golfingly yours,

I.K Anil

TOURNAMENTS

MDGC has been organizing outstation interclub matches and International golfing trips during the monsoon season of Coorg.

The 3rd International golfing meet of MDGC members was held in Thailand during July. 16 MDGC members travelled to Thailand and played at the beautiful Chee Chan Golf Course and the Siam Plantation Course in Pattaya and in the Cascatta Golf Course at Bangkok

The interclub Golf and Hockey matches were held with Madras Cricket Club at Chennai.

The Civil Services meet was held at Prestige Golfshire and KGA in Bangalore. MDGC team won the event against the CGASK.

MDGC team travelled to Hyderabad in September to play against the Hyderabad Golf Association team. MDGC lost narrowly in the interclub match.

Our tournament season in MDGC will commence in November and all members are eagerly looking forward to active participation.
